Forecast for Sunday 08 Nov 2020

Weather: Some heavy and perhaps prolonged rain around dawn. Then a mostly cloudy day, but rain will clear through the morning. Some brighter spells in afternoon, especially across more northern hills with perhaps some sunshine. Cloud thickening again in evening to bring further outbreaks of rain.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: Close to zero through much of the morning with persistent cloud down to 400 or 500m. Chance improving through the morning to become 40-60% by the afternoon with more broken cloud above 600m, though 750m across the north at times. Chance reducing in evening as further rain develops.

Visibility: Moderate perhaps poor at first Sunday with rain and very poor at height in cloud, but becoming mostly good by the afternoon, though still a bit hazy. Falling again in rain through the evening.
